

NYS Fire Investigators Chapter 23 IAAI Training Seminar

Saturday, February 25, 2017, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

N. Tonawanda PD Training Room, 500 Wheatfield St., North Tonawanda

$45.00 for IAAI/NYS Chapter members

$60.00 for non-members

Lunch is Included

Hands-On Practicals

Testing Certificates Available

With 10% of Proceeds Donated to Your Source for Free Continuing Education

Speakers and Topics Include:

Mark Meeks, Special Agent/CFI, ATF
Report Writing and the Scientific Method

Jason Karasinski, CFI, Fire Research & Technology
NFPA 921 and NFPA 1033 – Current Trends

Dixon Robin, Special Agent/CFI, ATF
Post-Conviction Appeals for Arson and the Innocence Project

Scott Phillips, Forensic Electrical Engineer, Forensic & Failure Analysis
Appliance Failure Basics

Jason Mignano, CFI, Liberty Mutual & Peter Davis, CFI, Davis Fire Debris Analysis
Collecting Appliances as Evidence

Scott Phillips, Jason Mignano, Peter Davis
Hands-On Actual Appliance Evidence Examination and X-Ray Practical Exercises

Scott Phillips, Jason Mignano, Peter Davis
Do's and Don't's of Appliance Examinations

Register by completing the form in the link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/XN6H579>

Checks must be paid to: “New York State Fire Investigators Chapter 23 IAAI” and mailed to: NYSIAAI c/o Ted Lachenauer, PO Box 6501, Watertown, NY 13601

You must have your payment received (or arrangements made to do so) before you are considered registered for the seminar, confirmation will be made via e-mail
Contact Dixon Robin with any questions at Melvin.Robin@atf.gov